ORDER:

The petitioner herein challenges the notice dated 7-11-1995 issued by the respondent – Gram Panchayat.

According to the petitioner she is owner of 418 Sq. Yards in plot Nos.2, 3 and 4 of Sy.No.518 of Peddapalli Village and Mandal, Karimnagar District, she made an application to the respondent – Gram Panchayat for permission to construct compound wall around her land and having not received any communication from the respondent, presuming sanction of permission under section 127(3) of A.P. Panchayat Raj Act, 1994 she started construction of the compound wall. It is her grievance that when the wall was raised up to 4' height, the respondent issued the impugned notice asking her not to make further construction.

While admitting the writ petition, this court by order dated 15-11-1995 directed the respondent to allow the petitioner to carry on further construction of compound wall.

Today, when the matter is called, there is no representation on either side.

Since the main relief itself was granted by way of interim direction, no further orders are necessary, inasmuch as both the parties are not coming forward to decide the matter on merits.

Therefore, the writ petition is closed, as no further orders are necessary. No costs.
